Community Caterer Call-Out

We're creating a list of local people and groups who can help with small-scale catering, and we'd love to include you.

We typically need meals for 6 to 15 people, and we're looking for anyone in the community who's interested in offering their services—whether you're a home cook, a fundraising group, or just someone who enjoys preparing good food.

What We're Looking For:

- Dinner, a drink, and dessert for 6–15 people
- At least one week's notice requests in most cases
- Occasional short-notice requests when needed

If You're Interested, Please Tell Us:

- What kind of meals or food you offer
- How much notice you typically need
- If you're catering as part of a fundraiser (we'd love to support you)
- Any certifications you may have (not required, but helpful to know)
- Your contact information
- If you'd rather discuss over the phone, please feel free to do so.

This is open to anyone in our community who's willing to cater. We're building a reference list so we can reach out when opportunities come up. Don't be shy—everyone is welcome.

You don't need to be a professional chef to take part. If you enjoy cooking and want to share your food with others, we'd love to hear from you. Whether you've catered before or this would be your first time, we're here to support you. Every contribution matters.

To submit your name or ask questions, please contact the band (250-849-5490) or email to: reception@gitsegukla.net or melida.argueta@gitsegukla.net

Thank you for helping keep good food close to home.
